ELLA STRAWBERRY

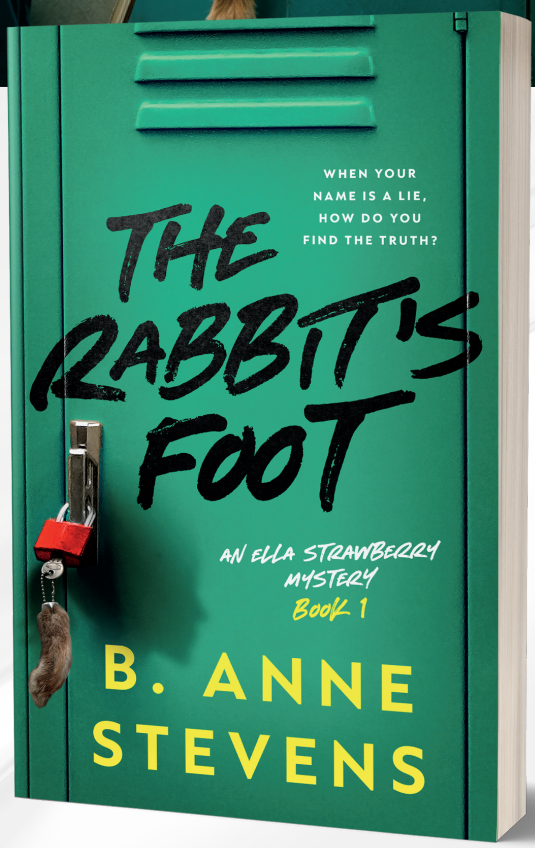

THE ELLA STRAWBERRY MYSTERIES

A YA MYSTERY THRILLER SERIES

A teen in witness protection. A town full of secrets. A mystery that leads her closer to the truth—and the family she thought she lost forever.

B. ANNE STEVENS

THE RABBIT'S FOOT RELEASE DATE: OCTOBER 19, 2026

Fifteen-year-old Elliana Stefanopoulos has lost everything. After her parents are supposedly killed in a mob-related accident, she's forced into witness protection in the small town of Havenwood (BASED ON CADIZ, KY). Stripped of her name, her home, and the life she loved in California, she's expected to become Ella Strawberry—whether she likes it or not. With nothing from her past except her mother's rabbit's foot keychain, Ella has to navigate her new identity at a new school.

When her biology teacher dies suddenly in front of class, suspicion falls on Ella's classmates. Convinced they're innocent, Ella launches her own investigation, uncovering missing evidence, small town secrets, and clues that suggest the teacher's death was anything but an accident.

Then Ella finds a hidden message that shatters everything she thought she knew about her parents. When betrayal closes in, Ella begins to wonder if trusting God could be just as risky as trusting the people supposed to protect her. With a killer determined to keep the truth buried, Ella must risk everything to save herself and her friends.

THE RABBIT'S FOOT: An Ella Strawberry Mystery, Book 1
Award Winning Christian YA Mystery / Suspense / Thriller
Audience: Girls ages 12-17
Paperback • ISBN 979-8-9964135-0-8
eBook • ISBN 979-8-9964135-1-5

AMERICAN CHRISTIAN FICTION WRITERS GENESIS WINNER

WHY GIRLS WILL LOVE IT

- Secrets, clues & codes that keep the mystery moving
- A relatable teen heroine facing grief, fear, friendship, and questions of identity
- Real suspense and unexpected twists without sacrificing wholesome content
- An authentic faith journey woven naturally into Ella's story
- Big questions about trust, courage, forgiveness, purpose, and God's sovereignty

A CHRISTIAN MYSTERY FOR TODAY'S GIRLS

The Rabbit's Foot is an ideal choice for readers who love mystery and suspense—and for parents and educators looking for clean, faith-filled fiction with meaningful themes.

Perfect for:

Moms & families · Homeschoolers · Christian schools · Teachers · Youth ministers · Girls' groups · Book clubs

AUTHOR INFO

B. Anne Stevens writes Christian mysteries for teens, blending adventure, suspense, and faith-filled stories that inspire young women to trust God, stand confidently in His truth, and embrace His purpose for their lives. She lives in Missouri with her husband, surrounded by family, nature, and the adventures that inspire her next story.

PRESS / INTERVIEW CONTACT

b.anne@bannestevens.com · bannestevens.com · find on Facebook/Instagram

Available for: Author interviews · Podcasts · School visits · Events

"A beautifully written YA mystery with a compelling heroine who gives Nancy Drew a run for her money. The suspense will keep readers engaged until the very last page."
— Nancy Mehl, bestselling, author of inspirational mystery and suspense

"Instantly one of my favorites! We need more books that relate to Christian girls like this."
— Leta S., age 14